JOIN US

Experts and stakeholders from the EU Mission Adaptation to Climate Change and the EU Mission 'A Soil Deal for Europe' will come together to explore the links between climate change, soil health, and food systems. The workshop will provide insights into how land use strategies can help address climate risks and enhance food security. Through expert presentations and interactive discussions, participants will explore solutions to protect soil health, support sustainable agriculture, and build climate-resilient and sustainable food systems.

If you represent a region or local authority, or if you are another stakeholder interested in improving land and food system resilience, make sure to sign up for the event to learn practical strategies for adapting land use systems to climate challenges.
