Falling Walls Lab Marie Skłodowska Curie Actions

The 2022 edition will happen on 24 May at the #MSCA @Europe2022FR Presidency Conference.

Test your communication skills & pitch your research/idea in just 3 minutes!

Entry requirements

We are looking for 15 excellent communicators from all disciplines, with exciting research topics, new ideas and discoveries.

Fellows from all Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions are encouraged to apply. This includes early-stage and experienced researchers and staff working in research and innovation.

Applicants must be MSCA fellows taking part in an MSCA project (including ITN, IF, RISE and COFUND) by the deadline.

Unfortunately, people who were selected to participate in previous editions may not apply again.

To apply, you must also fulfil at least one of the following conditions

- currently enrolled in university and/or currently a postdoc
- received a Bachelor's degree no more than 10 years ago
- received a Master's degree no more than 7 years ago
- received a PhD no more than 5 years ago

Note that an MD (medical degree excluding a doctoral dissertation) is considered equivalent to a Master's degree. A Dr. Med. (medical degree incl. a doctoral dissertation) is considered equivalent to a PhD.

How to apply

The deadline for applications is 21 March 2022, 12h CET (Brussels time). To apply, you will need to

- to submit your application, follow this link to the page for Falling Walls Lab Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions
- record a short, spontaneous two-minute video in English of you, explaining briefly and in plain words, your research topic, innovative project, social initiative, business model or idea and how your MSCA project supports it and then follow this link to a web form you can use to submit your video

If your application is successful, the European Commission will contact you and arrange your participation.
