Information:

The International Research Projects Office of the University of Granada organises the online workshop, “Marie Skłodowska-Curie Postdoctoral Fellowship (MSCA-PF) : How to write a successful proposal”, aimed at potential MSCA Fellows who wish to apply for an European or Global Fellowship with the University of Granada as host institution.

This workshop will take place on 14 July 2021 (UPDATED), from 10.00h to 12.00h. The main aim of the workshop is to help the researchers to prepare their proposal, providing practical advice on how to write a competitive MSCA Postdoctoral Fellowship proposal.

The workshop is open to applicants who fulfil the eligibility criteria and who have identified a potential UGR supervisor willing to support the application. If you have not yet found a supervisor for your project, you can check the list of available supervisors at the UGR on each research area.

Let us note that the publication of the call for Postdoctoral Fellowships of Horizon Europe (formerly known as Individual Fellowships) is expected by 22 June 2021 while the deadline for applications is expected by 12 October 2021. (UPDATED)

The workshop will be held in English.

Due to the current situation with COVID19, and following the instructions and recommendations of the health authorities, the course will be held ONLINE through GOOGLE MEET.
